

RFR Property relocates to bespoke Chelsea offices

eprivateclient 2016 Top 25 Residential Property Buyer RFR Property has relocated its expanding team to new premises just off Chelsea's King's Road.

The new offices, situated at 15 Flood Street, have been purpose built and designed by the firm's proprietary interior design team to reflect RFR's "contemporary brand".

RFR Property was set up in 2009 by ex-City lawyer Richard Rogerson and eprivateclient Top 35 Under 35 2015 Sophie Rogerson.

Today its 16-strong London-based team, including non-executive chairman William Drake, architect Karen Maze and in-house dog Indy, provides residential property advice to private clients covering six key areas: property search; rental search; interior design; project management; asset management; and investment & development.