

RFR REFRESHES BRANDING

RFR, the award-winning property advisory firm, is excited to present its new corporate branding.

Why the change?

In the past couple of years, RFR has grown considerably in terms of the depth and breadth of the services we deliver as well as the strength and technical expertise of the team of professionals that we have attracted from across the Private Client and Property industries. We very much hope that our new branding duly represents the outcome of this transformational period.

Search & Acquisitions

RFR's award-winning search and acquisitions team, based in London's Chelsea, helps individuals, families, family offices and investment buyers find and acquire the very best property. A hand-picked team of professionals from some of the most respected names in property and law combine to provide the ultimate property search and acquisitions service.

The search team, who know every corner of prime central London, the surrounding family markets and the emerging City fringes, are passionate about unlocking each client's specific requirements, committed to interpreting and delivering on the client brief and tenacious in their approach to finding the right property using their broad and diverse network of contacts.

They are backed by a unique and brilliantly effective transactional team who are renowned for their rigorous approach to due diligence, their ability to find innovative solutions to any issues that arise (whether legal, structural or survey related) and for their proactive and dedicated approach to moving transactions on to a successful conclusion.

There is never a good time to make a mistake in the property market and the combined expertise of the team at RFR ensures that you never will.
